Stéphane Lemelin captivates audiences and critics alike with "the precision and intelligence of his playing, the sensitivity and refinement of his musicality" (Montreal: Le Devoir). In great demand as a recitalist and chamber musician, he has also performed as soloist with orchestras across Canada. Mr Lemelin is a popular guest at summer festivals such as the Vancouver Chamber Music Festival and the Lanaudière International Festival. In addition to giving numerous performances in North America, including a Debut Atlantic recital tour in 1994-95, he is returning to Europe in 1994 for engagements in England and France. His concerns are heard regularly on CBC Radio and Radio-Canada and have been broadcast on National Public Radio in the United States.

Mr Lemelin's debut CD, released by Scandinavian Records, contains works by Schumann and Schubert "recorded to exquisite effect" (The Washington Post). Releases for 1994 include a CD with clarinetist James Campbell, a recording of the solo piano works of Canadian composer Eldon Rathburn, and the complete Nocturnes of Gabriel Fauré for CBC's "Musica Viva" label.

A Native of Québec, Mr Lemelin now lives in Edmonton where he teaches at the University of Alberta. He studied with Leon Fleisher, Karl-Ulrich Schnabel, Boris Berman and Claude Frank and holds Bachelor and Masters degrees from the Peabody Conservatory and a doctorate from Yale University. A winner at the Robert Casadesus International Competition, he is the recipient of several national and international awards.
